DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 8-12, 14, 16, 17 and 19-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Saito et al. 2002/0127432 A1.

Referring to claims 8-12 and 25, Saito discloses a method for manufacturing a glass substrate for an information recording medium, the manufacturing method comprising: a first washing step for washing a surface of a disk-shaped glass plate with an acid washing liquid (¶0057, line 1; and ¶0059), wherein an altered surface layer is formed on the surface of the glass substrate by the first washing step; thereafter a step for grinding at least part of the altered surface layer with abrasion grains to remove at least part of the altered surface layer for a depth of 0.5 nm or more with abrasions grains so that the altered surface layer has a thickness of (¶0056, ¶0057 and ¶0058); and a second washing step for washing the surface with an alkaline washing liquid (¶0058, line 12), wherein the altered surface layer formed by acidic washing in the first washing step is removed by the step for grinding and the second washing step; thereafter and the washing step includes immersing the glass plate in a strong acid solution and then immersing the plate in a strong alkaline solution (¶0074).

Referring to claims 16, 17 and 19-24 see ¶¶0035, ¶¶0074, ¶¶0044, ¶¶0026, ¶¶0066 and ¶¶0067.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 13, 15, 26 and 27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Saito et al.

Regarding claims 13 and 15, Saito et al. is described above. Saito et al. does not specifically disclose an alkaline solution having a pH value of 10.5 or greater. The alkalinity of the pH is dependent upon the desired outcome and may be determined through routine experimentation with expected results.

Regarding claims 26 and 27, Saito discloses the claimed method steps that implements the use of the claimed elements, producing the claimed depth of the altered surface layer, which implicitly produces the claimed deviation rate of surface roughness of the glass substrate of less than or equal to 3%.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments filed 10/01/09 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

- In response to Applicant's arguments that US Publication No. 2002/0127432 (to Saito) does not disclose the claimed method steps in the sequence as claimed by Applicant, in Example 1, Saito discloses the three method steps in the sequence as disclosed in claim 8.
- The remainder of Applicant's arguments is moot since the basis was that Saito did not disclose the method steps in the sequence as claimed.

Conclusion

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
